CINCINNATI.

The Next Place of Holding the G. A. R. Encampment.

The New Commander-in-Chief—Other Notes of the Occasion.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Cincinnati's triumph in securing the national encampment for 1898, and Pennsylvania's victory in winning the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army were the features of the encampment. Both battles were hard fought. The struggle was precipitated immediately after the executive session was called to order. The selection of the next place of meeting was first taken up, and the rival cities were given a hearing.

On the first ballot Cincinnati received 526 votes and San Francisco 214.

Following the selection of Cincinnati Archbishop Ireland was called to the stage and made a glowing and patriotic speech. He was followed by Gen. Lew Wallace, who made a short address.

The report of the committee on instruction followed this address. It criticized the books on history read in the schools in the South as inaccurate, and suggested some changes.

Nominations for Commander-in-Chief were then declared in order, and Isaac F. Mack, of Sandusky, O., was nominated by Delegate Brown, of Ohio; J. B. Gobin, of Lebanon, was nominated by Delegate Stewart, of Pennsylvania; George H. Innis, of Boston, by Delegate Wetherbee, of Massachusetts; and John G. Linehan, of New Hampshire, by Delegate Cogswell, of New Hampshire.

Gobin was elected.

The delegates marched to Music Hall this morning from the Iroquois Hotel to the music of bands and the cheering of their comrades, visitors and citizens.

The procession arch was draped and festooned in the national colors, surmounted by the crest of arms of the United States, topped with the golden eagle crest. Beneath the arch flags of all nations formed a brilliant cluster. The sides of the arch were of satin banners, bearing the arms of the state of New York.

The balcony was covered with maroon silk plush hangings. Pictures of Washington, Lincoln, Grant and Garfield occupied prominent places.

Guards with crossed bayonets barred the doors to the hall. Only comrades with the password were admitted to the galleries and only delegates with credentials were admitted to the main floor. Only the preliminary session of the encampment was open to a limited number of press representatives.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Alfred Lytle, of New York, was today elected senior vice commander of the G. A. R.

September 14 is the day set for Doc Crews' trial. Witnesses failed to appear today.

The case against Doc Crews, the logger from Wickliffe, arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshal La Rue and brought here night before last to answer a charge of violation of the revenue laws, was this morning continued by U. S. Commissioner J. R. Puryear until Sept. 14th, on account of the absence of government witnesses.

Crews was released on bond.

COURT CULLINGS.

E. H. Crews brought suit today in the circuit court against R. P. Rowe and T. B. Pierson for $400 damages. The plaintiff alleges that the defendants are owners of the towboat and steamer Monie Bauer; that last spring he had a boom of 190 cypress and poplar logs at the mouth of Garr creek, Ballard county, and that the aforesaid boat was carelessly run into the boom and destroyed it, scattering the logs and causing them to float down the river and become a total loss to the owner.

The Kansas Mutual Life Insurance Company brought suit against W. T. Chiles, Jr., their former agent, and J. T. Reddick and M. W. Clark, sureties, for $200 on a note and $62.44 alleged to be due for money collected as their agent and not turned over to them.

The St. Louis Type Foundry brings suit against Frank Shutt for $259.39 on a judgment from an Illinois court, rendered in 1887.

Dr. J. D. Robertson brings suit against the Standard Oil Company and G. B. Smith for $150, for professional services rendered to a man named Parkinson, who was a few weeks ago injured in the Standard Oil Company's Stave factory near Oaks, this county, and died in an infirmary here. The plaintiff alleges the said Smith represented himself to be an agent of the Standard Oil Company and agreed to pay for his services.

C. K. Lamond today brought suit against W. J. and F. J. Buckman and Frank Whelan in a note executed by the former for $5.15.

Mary Edmunds today instituted suit against Warner Edmunds for divorce. She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment and asks for the custody of her two-year-old child, Louise, $25 attorney fees, and a restoration to her maiden name, Mary Jenkins.

The United States Printing Company today sued I. Young for $58.85, balance due on a note for $89.00.

The Paducah Banking Company today brought suit against J. F. Whelan for $700 on two notes, one for $200 and $500, and asked on attachment of the defendant's property, which was granted by Circuit Judge Bishop.

The Paducah Banking Company also filed suit against J. F. Whelan and W. J. Buckman et al on a note for $300, and an attachment was issued also in this case.

Mrs. Maud C. Pierce, nee Orr, yesterday filed suit in the circuit court against her husband, John W. Pierce, the well-known pilot, for divorce, alleging cruel treatment, habitual drunkenness and abandonment. She asks for divorce, $1500 alimony, the custody of their child, and restoration to her maiden name.

Elenora Montague, colored, filed suit against J. J. Montague for divorce, alleging abandonment.

TO PREACH ON TRIAL.

Rev. J. Dieterle, of Michigan, Will Visit Here Sunday.

Rev. J. Dieterle, of Ann Arbor, Mich., will be in the city Sunday and preach at the German Evangelical church. He may be called to accept the pastorate of the church, which is vacant.

Among Illinois Central People and Prospects

LATEST FROM THE WRECK.

Mr. Crane Goes Out Probably Tomorrow.—Mr. Warfield Succede Him.

INSPECTION PARTY LEAVES PADUCAH.

A party composed of Supt. W. J. Harahan, Trainmaster J. J. Flynn, Assistant Chief Engineer D. G. Murrell and Traveling Auditor R. Adams left the city this morning at 6 o'clock for Evansville and a tour of the Ohio Valley division.

After considerable talk and more delay Mr. A. J. Crane is to be checked out as union depot ticket agent and Mr. George Wardfield is to be installed in his stead. Mr. Wardfield has received official notice of it, and the transfer will be made as soon as Traveling Auditor Adams arrives, which will probably be tomorrow.

An old rumor has in some way been revived. This is that Master Mechanic Chambers would leave Paducah and be succeeded by Mr. Hassman, formerly of the city. The rumor was current today, but could be traced to no authentic source, and no one knew anything further than that they had heard it.

The Jefferson Guards, a crack military company, passed through last night in a special car en route to New Orleans.

General Passenger Agent A. H. Hanson passed through the city this morning en route to Memphis.

Chas. Ratcliffe a machinist at the I. C. shops, had his foot badly mangled yesterday by a car wheel falling upon it.

The first local ticket over the Evansville division, formerly the O. V., was sold yesterday at the union depot. It was No. 9, form L43, and was to Marion.

W. J. Davis has been appointed by the Illinois Central management as chief train dispatcher of the Evansville district of the Louisville division, with headquarters at Henderson.

This morning the largest quantity of stores to ever leave Paducah was carried out on the 8 o'clock train for various stations along the line. There was about a car load of stationary, advertising matter, bottles of ink, etc.

Engineer E. H. Kelly, who was pulling No. 155 when she was wrecked at St. Elmo, reached the city last night. Conductor Croft is still at the wreck.

The wreck was not occasioned by the trucks of the first engine going, as stated in one paper, but by a split switch. The tramp killed was colored, and not white.

There was some lively bumping and shaking when the twelve cars left the track, and when Engineer Kelly looked for his fireman, Clay Mingo, he found him on the cab roof, safe and sound. The damage to property and rolling stock was great.

VAUDEVILLE GOES ON.

At La Belle Park Theater for This Week.

Opening of Morton's Opera House.—Other Amusement Notes.

Vaudeville has been put on at La Belle park in substitute for drama for the remainder of this week. A strong specialty program was rendered last night to a large audience, which seemed to take well to the change. The features of the entertainment are very good, and large audiences are promised for the remainder of the week.

As announced exclusively in the Sun a few weeks ago, Morton's opera house opens September 6 with the Peters & Green Comedy Company, for a week's engagement. This is fair week, and Peters and Green, the comedians, will no doubt prove a strong attraction. The Georgia Minstrels follow Peters & Green.

The La Belle park stock company now has two members who are writers. Miss Harta, one of the character women, is engaged in writing both a play and a novel, the material for which she has been collecting for several years. She has traveled all over the world, and has not been back long from Cuba.

The other writer is young Mr. Phelps, a relative of Manager P. A. Phelps. This young man has written a play which is to be put on at La Belle park before the season closes.

In regard to the close of the season the time has not been decided on by the managers of La Belle. It will last as long as the weather is such that the people can attend.

Nellie McHenry, who became such a favorite in Paducah in "A Night at the Circus" a year or two ago, is this year to star in a new play, "Miss Plaster of Paris."

Mr. A. W. Smith, of Cincinnati, father of George Smith, the celebrated boy violinist, was in the city today arranging for an appearance of his son here.

It should be borne well in mind that the Peters & Green Comedy Company is not a week's stand company. It is engaged for five nights on account of fair week, and only up-to-date farce-comedy will be produced.

September 11 is the date for the Georgia minstrels, headed by Billy Korsands.

PROMINENT SPEAKER.

Ex-Lieut. Governor Hindman Is in the City.

Will Speak Tonight at the Court House.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Hindman, who speaks at the court house tonight, is an affable gentleman of good address, quick wit, unusual intelligence, and a gentleman whom it is a pleasure to meet.

He spoke at Clinton last night, and a special from that place to the "Courier-Journal" contains the following:

The leaven of returning prosperity is surely getting in its work when free silver farmers who made faces at sound money speakers last year will sit for two hours and hear the National Democratic standard bearer expound his party's principles. They laugh at his jokes, smile when he reminds them of the silverite predictions of thirty-cent wheat if Bryan was defeated, and they look serious when he tells that this very free silver agitation was in part responsible for the delay of returning good times."

His speech is detailed at some length, and is evidently well worth hearing. He should be greeted by a good crowd tonight.

A CAUTIOUS BURGLAR.

But He Was Unsuccessful at Housebreaking.

Shot at Twice by a Resident of West Monroe.

There was an attempted burglary this morning before daylight at the residence of Mr. Curley, 1032 Monroe street. The thief appeared to be a white man.

He opened the gate, propped it so it would not obstruct his exit, and then prised open the shutter. In accomplishing the latter he awoke the family, and Mr. Curley ran out and shot at him twice.

IMPROVEMENT NOTES.

How Buildings Are Progressing Here.

Many Being Finished.—New Ones to Go Up.

The handsome new building for Thompson, Wilson & Co., on North Fourth street, opposite Central Fire Station, is now complete, and the office will be moved in Saturday, the entire removal to take place Tuesday.

Work is progressing nicely on the Broadway M. E. church. The addition of windows and doors will make a vast improvement in the external appearance of the structure. The handsome memorial glass, however, is not expected for a month. The first coat of plastering is now being put on, and the last will be begun next week.

The foundation for the Michael residence on North Seventh street near Monroe has been laid. It will be one of the prettiest residences in the city.

The brick work on Mr. L. S. DuBois' fine residence on Fountain avenue, West End, began today. The roof on Mr. Jack Colson's new home, adjoining Mr. DuBois' is now being put on, and it will soon be complete.

There are now thirty-nine men employed in making sewerage excavations, and the work is progressing as rapidly as might be expected, considering the drawbacks and delays that have occurred since work began.

Work on the steam heating apparatus is advancing at the county court house, and all the material is on hand. Contractor Hannan expects to complete the system in two or three weeks.

The new fence around the jail has been finished on the South Side. It is of heavy oak, and quite an improvement over the old one. A hanging or two is expected after this term of court by the authorities.

Contractor G. R. Davis will begin putting in the heating apparatus for the county jail in about two weeks. The work when once begun, will not require long.

Mr. W. L. Bennett, the Illinois Central dispatcher, will shortly begin the erection of a handsome two-story frame residence on Jefferson street back of the I. C. hospital.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEES.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.
We publish today a full list of the Republican city and county nominees who are to be voted for at the coming election. These two tickets are composed of the Representative men of Paducah and McCracken county.

The tickets are a credit to the Republican party and if elected will administer the affairs of the city and county in a most satisfactory and creditable manner.

The issue before the people of this city and county is between the two great parties and not of a personal nature. The Sun desires to state right now that it has no personal fight to make on any one Democratic nominee, though we do believe that the personnel of the Republican ticket is such that the affairs of our city and county would be more satisfactorily administered by the nominees of the Republican party.

The issue is between the two parties. The Democratic party endorses the Chicago platform and all the vagaries of Bryanism. As the Sun has several times stated, the object of the sound money men of Kentucky is to destroy free silverism root and branch. The election of the city and county Democratic tickets would only add strength to the free silver machine in Kentucky. Every sound money man in McCracken county owes it to himself to cast his vote for the principles he believes in.

No one knows better than certain late candidates the part the money question played in the recent Democratic primary. If the Democrats themselves allow that issue in their primary, it is not at all strange that the people should take notice of that issue in the general election.

The Republicans are men of high standing and of individual popularity. Around that ticket the Republicans can rally with pride and enthusiasm. All we need in order to win easily is a united party and a full Republican vote.

MAYFIELD MATTERS.

A Project to Erect a New Hotel and Opera House.

Will Tutt Waives Examination—A Cutting Affray—51 Dives There.—The Coming Primary.

There is a scheme on foot among prominent capitalists of Mayfield to rebuild the block which was destroyed by fire last Wednesday night with a $15,000 hotel and a handsome opera house. The site is a fine one for such a building, being in the heart of the city, and would be a great help to Mayfield. There are more residences being built at Mayfield now than for several years, and there's not a single dwelling for rent. Mayfield is having a steady growth.

A cutting affray which may prove fatal occurred in the western part of Mayfield Wednesday afternoon at Dan Boaz' beer dive. Charlie Tucker, a mulatto negro, and Len Lewis, a white man, quarreled over a dollar, and a fight ensued, in which Lewis was out in the neck and Tucker hit with a brick. An ugly gash about two inches long and an inch deep was cut in Lewis' neck, just under the ear, and he is in a critical condition. After being cut he hit the negro in the head with a brick, tearing his scalp considerably. The negro fled, and has not been captured.

Will Tutt, the negro who shot and killed his wife at Mayfield last Monday, was taken before the county court for examining trial, but waived examination and was held for the action of the grand jury. He was very nervous when brought out from behind the bars, but no attempt was made to do him violence. The colored people, while still crying for his blood, have not the courage to attack the jail and lynch him.

There are now in Mayfield fifty-one dives, a number that is not only a disgrace to the municipal administration, but a menace to the morals of the community at large as well. No effort is made to break them up.

The primary to nominate a city marshal of Mayfield on September 3 promises to be very heated. The candidates, Messrs. McNutt and Draffen, received 242 votes each, and the tie will be voted off on the 3d prox.

Mr. Fanning T. Nobling, bookkeeper for Carter & Slaughter, of Mayfield, died yesterday afternoon of fever. He was one of the most highly respected young men of Mayfield, and had been in the employ of the firm about ten years.

Five Alaskan Indians are dead and five others are dying from drinking a decoction called whiskey that was sold by a Sitka saloon-keeper.

The march of the Grand Army at Buffalo this week was led by a private soldier, though he has exchanged his knapsack for the duties of commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States.

The Klondike gold that reached the San Francisco mints has already been coined and is in the pockets of the people. A year ago the metal was deep in the frozen soil of Alaska. This is an age of rapid development.

Though Switzerland spends only $500,000 a year on its army, it can assemble an army of 100,000 trained men in two days, and its reserves, in addition, number 370,000 men. The Swiss are marksmen, and altogether their military system is well worth the attention of other republics.

Mr. George M. Coffin, assistant controller of the currency, says that the national banks as a whole were never stronger and better prepared in cash resources to furnish all facilities for moving the great wheat and cotton crops that are now coming to the markets of the world. The only speck of danger in the future is that amidst all the present evidences of business revival the bitter experience of the past four years may be forgotten and that the ball of speculation may be again set rolling into a future of business disaster.

The leading feature of the market yesterday at Louisville, says the "Post," was a special sale of 108 hogheads at the Brown house by some of the leading shippers and handlers. This sale was very successful as to prices, which may be said to be very satisfactory to every one excepting for two hogheads out of the entire lot, which were rejected, a record which is seldom, if ever, equalled. In point of quality hogheads, were sold, the like of which have not been shown at any time this season. The hogheads which brought the highest price of all was finer than anything seen for several years, and sold at 29c., being 5c. higher than any sold this year, and 10c. higher than for several years past. The buyer was Mr. E. J. O'Brien, a broker. The next highest for select leaf was 27c., 25c. and 25c., the whole sale showing an average on the entire 108 hogheads of $16.76 per 100 pounds.

For some time past some of the people in the Reynolds vicinity, says the Owensboro "Messenger," have believed that inexhaustible gold mines exist in their midst, if only the mines could be discovered. Several have been vigorously prospecting, and they now confidently believe that their search is to be crowned with great results. An ore has been discovered which is believed by many of the Reynolds people to be gold. Mr. Garland Black has been one of the most active prospectors and he has sent a package of the ore specimens to a brother who lives at Dayton, O., for the purpose of having them assayed. The discovery of what is believed to be gold ore has created considerable excitement among the Reynolds people, and it is said that most all kinds of work has ceased and the people are sitting around in the little village and discussing the wealth of the community, pending a decision of the assayer at Dayton. If it should be to the effect that the ore is gold, no further attention will be paid to crops, but everybody in the neighborhood will join in the grand rush for gold, and every foot of ground for miles around Reynolds will be thoroughly mined.

SILVER ACROBATS

Wonderful Feats of W. J. Bryan and F. E. White as Free Trade and Free Silver Democrats.

They Both Laud and Curse Cheapness.—First Credit to Inventive Genius and Then Blame It on the "Crime of '73."—What F. E. White Said In 1892.

"This Universal Blessing of Lower Prices."—"Things Sell Lower Because They Are Made Cheaper."—"They Are Made Cheaper Because of Better Methods and Processes."

There are no greater economic acrobats than the silver Democrats now giving exhibitions in this country. They turn somersaults and flips backward and forward so fast that it makes one dizzy to watch them. In one year or one campaign they are lauding cheapness and the inventive genius which caused it, and in the next they are cursing cheapness and the curse of cheapness. All of the free trade silver Democrats have done this yet. They have had to do it still have to do it whenever they let loose on these broad country as most of them are wont to do. It is impossible to be a free trader and not believe in the "crime of '73" as the cause of the great and "ruinous" fall of prices which has since occurred and not believe that low prices are a curse. Because he saw the inconsistency of it, or for political reasons, W. J. Bryan, in his canvass last year, practically refused to acknowledge the fact that the "crime of '73" was the cause of the low prices. If he had talked truth, he would have been in danger of repeating his speech of March 18, 1892, in which he said, "You must attribute it to the inventive genius, and that is what has brought down prices in this country and everywhere."

But Bryan is not a candidate for office this year. We will devote our attention to one who has been conspicuous since 1892 as a free trade Democrat, and who is now, because of his inaction for governor of Iowa, conspicuous as a silver Democrat. Of course the silver Democrats are not going to say that "the people some of the world's riches are being brought down by the light of day better light and more knowledge." [Applause.]

"When, then, this new light and knowledge have been brought to the point of practical utility, they are given to the world, they become the world's property. That is what has enabled us to make such wonderful progress. That is the secret of our marvelous success. That is what has enabled us to multiply a hundred and in some instances a thousand fold our mechanical power, and hence our productive capacity. [Applause.] The reason things sell lower than formerly is because they are made cheaper, and they are made cheaper because of better, superior methods and processes employed in their manufacture."

"Why, sir, Mr. McKinley might die tomorrow and by the day after be forgotten. * * * Mechanical invention and scientific discovery would not be retarded. The sun would still continue to impart warmth and the rain moisture to the earth. The seed sown by the husbandman would germinate, grow and develop into the annual harvest. The essential conditions upon which our prosperity depends would be destroyed. But, sir, you annihilate the inventive genius of your people, destroy the skill of your mechanics and machinists and the love of your scientists for their labor, and their progress would be simply impossible. A standstill would be the result; not a standstill, but a stagnation, which in itself would be utterly intolerable."

"It is not to Mr. McKinley or any other politician, but to the memory of the men who invented and have perfected your printing press; to the memory of the men who discovered the power of steam and built your steam engines, who invented and built your power looms and cotton gins; to the memory of the men who constructed your telegraph and laid your ocean cables, who discovered and have perfected the means of communication; to the memory of the men who have the mental capacity to put together their self-binders, which have revolutionized the broad problem—it is to the memory of your scientists that we ought to erect monuments that would place the very skies [applause], while we may with perfect safety allow the name of McKinley and every other politician to go unused, unremembered and unmentioned." [Applause.]

No More Lawlessness, Lewdness and Profanity at Ninth and Washington.

A vast change has come over the spirit of their dreams. Reference is made to the law and lawless characters that have long held full sway near Ninth and Washington streets. Officer Crow, who is on that beat, says a greater change could not be imagined.

THE MAYFLOWER

Passes up With a Good Passenger List.

The Mayflower came in this morning with 104 excursionists from St. Louis. Some of them were pretty tough customers, evidently, as they visited saloons with as much indifference and unconcern as their male companions.

The spectacle of respectfully dressed women going in the front doors of saloons and drinking over the bar was one which most Paducahans were unfamiliar with, and a great many wondered where the police were. The boat went up Tennessee river at 10 o'clock.

MALICIOUS ASSAULT

May Be the Charge Against Will Childers.

Will Childers was arrested this morning by Officer Sutherland on a charge of assaulting a colored boy of North Ninth street named Thomas, at Tenth and Boyd streets. The latter was badly hurt, and a malicious assault charge may be preferred against Childers.

DRANK SWEET MILK.

But Took Nothing Else—Another Burglary.

A night or two since thieves entered the house of Capt. Henry Owen, on Jefferson street near Ninth, but secured nothing but about a half gallon of sweet milk. He first attempted to get in through the parlor window, opening a shutter, but could not gain entrance this way and went to the kitchen. He did not go farther than the kitchen and back porch, and left the pitcher in the middle of the porch after he had drunk its contents.
